Called "The city between the two seas" for its strategic location, Trapani played a significant role in the Italian era of sailing and trades, becoming the perfect choice for our latest base.

In town, the historical boulevard Viale Regina Elena will lead you straight to the entrance of Trapani Harbour: a modern structure where tourism, fishing and trades cross and fuse in the harmony of a typical southern sunset.

From the western corner of Sicily, hundreds of boats set sail for the Egadi Islands (Levanzo, Favignana and Marettimo) or cruise Sicily coast to coast to visit Palermo, Cefalù or San Vito Lo Capo.

HOW TO REACH US

On the A29 highway direction Palermo-Trapani. Take Trapani exit and follow the road signs.

Airports of Trapani Birgi and Palermo Punta Raisi

Trapani stop, only 500 mt from the harbour.
